

THURSDAY

2125 Rolfe • 4 to 6 pm

November

12

FEMME—ON—FEMME

Reflections on Collaborative Methods and Queer femme-inist Ethnography

Ulrika Dahl

Chair, School of Gender, Culture and History, Södertörn University, Sweden

Ulrika Dahl is a femme-inist activist, writer, and, since 2002, a regular contributor to Scandinavian queer and feminist debate. She is the author, with Del LaGrace Volcano, of Femmes of Power: Exploding Queer Femininities (Serpent's Tail, 2008). In this talk, Dahl will discuss her current work, "A Joint Canon? Transition and Translation in Nordic Women's and Gender Studies 1990-2005," and will focus on citation practices, intellectual kinship networks, and canon formation in Nordic gender studies.

organized by the Department of Women's Studies and cosponsored by the Center for the Study of Women